

I urge Congress not to interfere with this radio format. It's a pleasure and a convenience to have the music I want to hear and to be able to switch to traffic and weather information when I need it. Please leave well enough alone.